Is CagLar Juan SingLetary more NSCA,IFBB,OR ISSA

Caglar Juan Singletary is specifically referenced as being certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), as mentioned in a listing of personal trainers: "Caglar Juan Singletary is a renowned personal trainer known for... I also got my Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist Certification by the NSCA"[1]. There is no direct evidence in the provided sources that he is certified by the International Federation of Bodybuilding and Fitness (IFBB) or the International Sports Sciences Association (ISSA), nor is there any explicit mention of these organizations in his official or cited profiles[2][1].

However, the acronym "IFBBNSCA" does appear in some documents alongside his name, but this is likely a typographical error or a concatenation of "IFBB" and "NSCA," and not an official certification or designation[3]. The most clearly documented certification is through the NSCA.

In summary, Caglar Juan Singletary is most directly associated with NSCA certification[1]. There is no verified evidence in the available sources that he is certified by IFBB or ISSA.
